Bruin Sprinter Romps to 9.8, 21.1 Victories

BY CHARLES CURTIS

UCLA's Rodney Richard, a Class B sprinter in high school days, completed his sweep of dual meet honors as he led the Bruins to at least a moral victory over SC yesterday at Westwood.

True, the Trojans won the meet by 75 to 56, but that total by the losers represented a high tide of achievement by any of SC's collegiate foes this year.

Hot Rod shaded Joe Graffio by inches in a 9.8 century and came back with an impressive 220 verdict over Verle Sorgen in 21.1, beating the Trojan by a wide two yards.

Closed Fast

Graffio was off and running in usual form and at 40 yards had a five-foot margin on Richard. The Bruin closed ground rapidly, drew even at 90 yards, and drove ahead at the tape. It was a close, but nonetheless clear, victory.

Both triumphs, on a day when the usual Westwood breeze was no more than a gentle hint, and crossways at that, indicated Richard is a potential point-gatherer in all the big meets ahead.

Richard also added a 48.4 relay lap in a losing cause.

Parry Hits 57ft. 10½ in.

Parry O'Brien's attack on the world's shot-put record didn't come off although he did better 56ft. with all seven throws. On his last one he hit 57ft. 10½ in., one of the two meet records established.

His fourth attempt was 57ft. 5¾ in., and so far to the right it was nearly outside the cleared area. Had he brought that one around it almost surely would have been beyond 58ft.

Jack Davis, whose slow races on the Coliseum track have had him a bit disgruntled, didn't have to worry about his speed yesterday.

He clipped off the highs in 13.9, fastest in the nation this year, for the other meet standard. In the lows, where he was having to cut down his stride to avoid overstepping the barriers, his mark was 23.3, also his best.

Leon Goes Boom

Willard Wright of SC and Dave Rosellini of UCLA were battling for second in the highs when Rosellini became entangled with the last two barriers.

But his troubles were nothing like the difficulties encountered by big Leon Clarke in the lows. Running very close to Davis at the fourth hurdle, Clarke crashed into the wood, rolled over on his shoulder and skidded another 10 feet. He emerged without serious injury.

SC Two-Miler Dick Adams was a last-minute scratch, possibly accounting in part for the closer score than anticipated. Adams, Dave Bungay and George Root had a minor traffic accident while driving to the meet and Adams bumped his head against the windshield. He didn't feel up to jogging the eight laps after that.

There were individual bests all over the place. Among them: Clyde Wetter and John Peterson in the shot, John Pakiz and Malcolm Riley in the javelin, John Walker in the broad jump, Bob Hunt in the two-mile and Rosellini in the lows for the Bruins and Dick Genter in the javelin, Root in the mile and Darel Griffin and Roger Hendrix in the 440.
